Embark on the Sandomierz Apple Trail and experience the unparalleled taste of local apples! Each of them, juicy and full of sweetness, hides the energy of the sun and the care with which it was nurtured. Here, among the green hills crisscrossed by the blue ribbon of the Vistula River, spread local orchards and vineyards....

#1 APPETIZING ROUTE

Aromatic honeys, traditional bread, delicious jam...
Take the appetizing route on the Sandomierz Apple Trail and you will recall the sweet flavors of your childhood. Try the famous apple pie in the Pictish style and drink coffee with lavender syrup. Do you prefer something more dry? How about chicken breast stewed in dried Sandomierz fruit, Abbot's dumplings or a board of fine cheeses and crispy apple chips? If you think you drink only natural juices, check out what preservative-free juice really tastes like. We guarantee you'll feel the difference.

#2 WINE ROUTE

Did you know that the wine traditions of the Sandomierz region date back to the Middle Ages? Lovers of the Mediterranean climate will delight in the picturesque vineyards, whose owners cultivate a multi-generational passion for viticulture. If you dream of owning your own vineyard, the hosts will provide expert advice, organize wine workshops (for children, workshops on grape juice production), help you select seedlings of appropriate strains, treat you to local specialties and, of course, fine wine of their own production.

#3 ARTISTIC ROUTE

Dreaming of spiritual solace? On the Sandomierz Apple Trail you will find unusual places with a soul, through which you will learn about the culture of our region and experience it with all your senses. You will learn about Sandomierz's horticultural traditions, visit a wooden cettage where time has
